RELIGIOUS AND MORAL EDUCATION STD 5 END OF TERM II 2015

NAME:_____

STANDARD:_____

1. What is religion?

A. The way people understand myths.

B. Rituals Performed in different regions.

C. Belief a Practices of different people.

D. Some acts of worship carried out in public places.

2. Which of the following human rights is matched with the correct responsibility of an individual?

	HUMAN RIGHTS	RESPONSIBILITY
A	The right to good health	Taking medicine as prescribed
B	The right to a home	The responsibility to work hard
C	The right to live	The responsibility to be best in everything
D	The right to Education	The responsibility to obey family laws

✓ 3. The following are effects of pilgrims on the environment except_____.

A. water Pollution

B. A Forestation

C. Soil Erosion

D. Littering

4. Which item is used during the offering of sacrifices in African Traditional Religion in Botswana?

A. Mortar

B. Skull cap

C. Cow dung

D. Clay Pot

5. Which of the following is a moral value attached to sacred places?

A. Empathy

B. Respect

C. Trust

D. Love

6. What is the meaning of the crescent moon in Islam?

A. It is a sign of purity

B. It is a sign of forgiveness.

C. It symbolizes light and guidance

D. It symbolizes the presence of Allah

7. After having a terrible accident, Tebogo is no longer able to speak. Which of the following organizations can help Tebogo learn to speak again?

A. Metlhaetsile

B. Ditshwanelo

C. Chesire Foundation

D. Botswana National Sports Council

8. How do Sikh men express their religious identity?

A. By wearing turbans

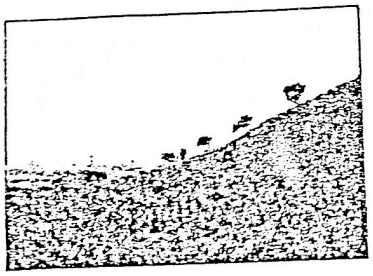

B. By carrying their swords

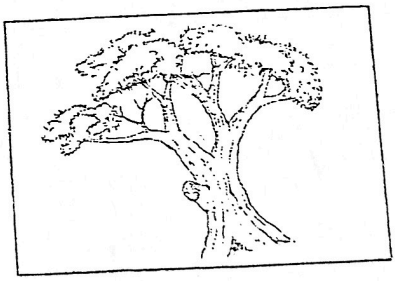

C. By fasting five times a day.

D. By moving around the golden temple

9. Which of the following shows a sacred place for Christians?

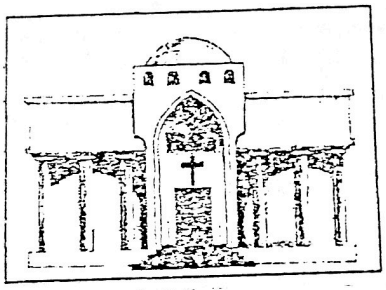

A

B

C

D

Read the statement below and use it to answer Question 10.

"My friend wanted us to become nurses when we finish school but I have decided to become a teacher," said Neo.

10. What kind of person is Neo?

A. She is humble

B. She is autonomous

C. She is confused

D. She is boastful

Read the story below and use it to answer Question 11.

One day a man was walking from Jerusalem to Jericho. He met thieves who attacked, beat him and left him half dead. A priest passed by. He looked at him and chose to use another road. The second person, a Levite, passed by and also used a different route. Another man, a good Samaritan, passed by. He stopped, attended his wounds and took him to an inn.

Source: The Bible; Luke 10: verses 30 - 34

11. Which of the following statements shows how caring for the needy is expressed in the story?

A. The thieves left the man half dead

B. The Levite felt pity for the injured man

C. The Samaritan helped the injured man

D. The priest reported the incident to the police

12. The following shows groups except _____.

A. School Choir

B. Classmates

C. Monitor

D. Students

Read the information below and use it to answer Question 13.

Godfree is a believer in one of the religions in Botswana. Every Friday at noon, he goes to his place of worship for prayers. When praying, he faces in the direction of Mecca.

13. To which religion does Godfree belong?

A. Islam

B. Sikhism

C. Hinduism

D. Buddhism

14. Why is it important for people to understand themselves?

A. So that they can be successful in influencing others.

B. So that they can be loyal to others.

C. So that they can compete fairly.

D. So that they can work on their weakness.

15. The ability to differentiate between right and wrong is called_____.

A. Morality

B. A Value

C. A religion

D. Self Confidence

Read the information below and use it to answer Question 16.

He taught his followers the Noble Truths and Eight fold path.

16. What is the name of religious founder whose teachings are stated above?

A. Guru Nanak

B. Prophet Muhammad

C. Baha'u'llah

D. Siddhartha Gautama

✓17. Individuals can care for destitute people by.

A. Allowing them to express themselves

B. giving them love and support

C. Giving them tattered clothes

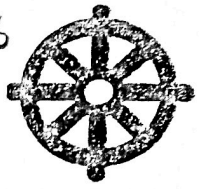

D. making them work for food

18. Which of the following is the symbol for Buddhism?

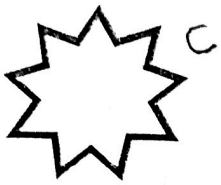

A.

B.

C.

D.

19. How do followers of religions in Botswana support people who are HIV positive?

A. By visiting them at home and when they are in hospitals.

B. By developing religious laws which favors them

C. By encouraging them to visit traditional doctors

D. By making other people aware of their status.

20. Which of the following can help young people avoid peer pressure?

A. Relating well to age mates

B. Relying on advice from friends

C. Depending on decision made by parents

D. Making independent decisions

21. Who amongst the following is a founder of a religion?

A. The Bab

B. Moses

C. Guru Nanak

D. Khadja

22. The following are major common elements in the religions in Botswana except_____.

A. Symbols

B. Teachings

C. Harvesting

D. Beliefs

23. How can people with HIV and AIDS take care of themselves?

A. Eating balanced diet

B. Unprotected sex

C. Smoking

D. Multiple Relationship

24. Where do Muslims go for their pilgrimage?

A. To Mandrash

B. To Mecca

C. To the Temple

D. To Muhammad's home

✓25. Why is it important to dispose litter properly?

A. It pollutes the environment

B. It prevents the spread of disease

C. It create jobs for the needy

D. Helps in growing vegetables

26. Modise goes to Israel every Easter to celebrate the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. This statement shows that Modise belongs to a _____.

A. Religious group

B. Social group

C. Charity group

D. Political group

✓27. Where are ritual objects kept in African Traditional Religion in Botswana?

A. In church buildings

B. In different shrines

C. In Mountain caves

D. In cattle kraals

Read the information below and use it to answer Question 28 and 29.

One day Neo, Lorato, Tshepo and Nono were walking from School. They met an old lady who asked them for directions to the shops. Neo greeted her and walked away. Lorato laughed at her. Tshepo ran away and Nono directed her to the shops.

28. Who of the following Children acted in the right way?

A. Nono

B. Lorato

C. Neo

D. Tshepo

29. Which of the following moral judgment can be drawn from the information?

A. Youth in Botswana enjoy their democratic rights

B. Some of the youth in Botswana need to be taught inter-personal skills

C. Elders always look for assistance from young people

D. Some elders in Botswana need to be transported to and from the shops

30. Which of the following is an example of man-made sacred place in African traditional Religion in Botswana?

A. A Mountain

B. A Kgotla

C. A Tree

D. A Church

31. In Botswana, a wooden log is placed at the door step of a hut in which a mother of a new born baby is confined.

What is the importance of this ritual?

A. It shows that the mother of a new born baby is not well

B. It makes people aware that the new born baby's hair has been shaved

C. It introduces the new born baby to Badimo

D. It restricts people from entering the hut where the new born baby is kept

Read the information below and use it to answer Question 32.

Kagiso is a standard five boy. His home has been washed away by flood.

32. Which of the following organizations can help Kagiso's family?

A. Childline Botswana

B. Holy cross Hospice

C. The Red Cross society

D. Motse wa Badiri Camphill

✓ 33. What is the contribution of sacred places to Botswana's economy?

A. They make Chiefs rich

B. They attract traditional believers

C. They attract tourist

D. The make villages popular

✓ 34. Why do religious people go on pilgrimage?

A. Because they want to become strong in their faith.

B. Because they are in search for faithful partners.

C. Because they want to show that they know God.

D. Because they want to enjoy themselves.

✓ 35. How can parents protect their children's inheritance?

A. By selling all their properties before they die.

B. By writing wills explaining how their wealth should be distributed.

C. By allowing their relatives to carry out the distribution of their wealth.

D. By making arrangements for their own burials.

Read the passage below and use it to answer Questions 36 and 37

Kago is a young homeless girl who lives in the streets with a gang led by a strong, cruel and violent boy. During the day, the group moves around the city asking for handouts from people. In the evening they break into people's houses and steal. In the morning, the gang leader grabs all the stolen goods from members. A member who is unable to gather more goods is often beaten up.

36. Which of the following shows that Kago has low self-esteem?

A. She abuses other gang members.

B. She accepts Instructions from the leader.

C. She is never involved in house-breaking

D. She defends herself

37. What is the disadvantage of the gang leader's behavior on other gang members?

A. His action can encourage them to go back to their homes.

B. His actions make their criminal practices less severe.

C. His actions can encourage them to be hardened criminals.

D. His actions influence them to act independently.

38. Which of the following moral values is expressed by believers when they are on pilgrimage?

A. Respect for elders.

B. Loyalty to the Supreme Being.

C. Empathy towards the poor.

D. Appreciation of the beauty of nature.

39. Naledi chose to become a model and ended up winning an international modeling competition. How does her victory benefit Botswana?

A. It encourages members of the society to become models.

B. It encourages citizens to become responsible.

C. It makes young people to behave like adults.

D. It makes the country proud and famous.

40. What is morality?

A. It is understanding what is good or wrong.

B. It is understanding people's attitudes.

C. It is taking care of elderly people.

D. It is helping and treating other people fairly.

41. Which of the following is Not a feature of African Traditional Religion?

A. The religion has a founder.

B. The adherents' belief in ancestral spirits.

C. The believers have no special day of worship.

D. The believers evoke spirits when making rain.

42. Which of the following is a common belief in religions about sacred places?

A. They influence believers to tolerate others.

B. They contain hidden treasures.

C. They are holy and should be respected.

D. They help believers to be rich.

43. Self – esteem can be described as how people_____.

A. Compare themselves to others.

B. See themselves in the mirror.

C. See and understand themselves.

D. Feel about the environment.

Read the information below and use it to answer Question 44.

In February 2010, Therisano Primary School pupils in Gaborone handed a cheque of P30, 000 to a fellow pupil, who was to undergo a kidney operation. They had raised the funds for the operation through some activities.

44. Which moral action did the pupils of Therisano Primary School show?

A. Friendship.

B. Compassion.

C. Honesty.

D. Trust.

45. The following are disadvantages of low self-esteem except_____.

A. Low confidence

B. Negative about yourself

C. Angry about yourself

D. Positive attitude about yourself.

46. Which one of the following is an example of morally wrong actions?

A. Abortion.

B. Faithfulness.

C. Compassion.

D. Kindness.

47. Botswana makes its own laws and provides social services to her people. This shows that Botswana_____.

A. Has the most effective laws.

B. Relates well with other countries.

C. Provides social services to no-citizens

D. Is an autonomous country.

48. Which of the following is a way in which orphans can protect themselves against abuse?

A. By making sure that security guards protect their homes.

B. By telling social workers about their problems.

~~C. By telling social workers about their problems~~

D. By sharing their problems with strangers.

49. Which of the following can be an effect of a pilgrimage on the environment?

A. Soil erosion

B. Clean surroundings

C. The planting of new trees.

D. The purification of underground water.

50. Which of the following shows the difference between moral values and personal values?

	Moral Values	Personal Values
A.	Concerned with interest of an individual	Concerned with her behavior of a person.
B.	Concerned with right or wrong behavior	Concerned with the interest of an individual.
C.	Concerned with how wrong behavior should be corrected	Concerned with how a person relates to nature.
D.	Concerned with how a person relates to others.	Concerned with how people help each other.